Dear Mr. McGraw:

We sent interrogatories and requests for production of documents to you on September 20, 2022. On November 16, 2022, we sent a letter informing you that your responses to this discovery were overdue. The Federal Rules of Civil Procedure allow thirty (30) days for you to respond. Your responses are well overdue. Please provide complete responses to our discovery requests within fourteen (14) days or we will have to seek intervention from the court. Please allow this letter to serve as our second and final attempt to resolve this matter without court intervention.

I have included courtesy copies of the discovery requests with this letter

Sincerely,
